

I can help you with that!

If you are an AT&T consumer customer and are already on a FirstNet and Family account, you may have secondary access. The first responder must be the account holder to remain on the FirstNet program. If you are also a first responder and would like to sign up for FirstNet service, please go to this link here to start the process.